Registration Deadline: The number of participants is limited. Registration accepted until July 26, 2019.

Please read carefully:

- You can come in person to our main office to apply for the examination, or send us the registration form by mail. Along with the signed registration form you will need to hand in a copy of your passport or identity card, two recent photos (two inches, color) as well as the registration fee (which can be paid directly in the language office, or by bank wire);
- On exam day, please bring as well your exam confirmation letter which you have earlier received via email.
- In addition to the examiners, only exam candidates are allowed in the examination room during the exam.
- The following will lead to exclusion from the exam: anyone who cheats in connection with the exam; anyone who brings or uses unauthorized resources to help him/herself or provides them to others; or anyone who by his or her behavior disturbs the orderly administration of the exam.
- Bags or mobile phones are not allowed in the examination room. For the time of the written exam, your belongings will be safely locked in a separate room.
- Prior to the exam we will check your ID or passport. Please bring your original identification, since copies or other documents will not be accepted. As part of the identity verification process, a photo of you will be taken before the exam starts. Please, have your passport or ID ready for inspection for the entirety of the exam.
- In the written part of the examination, you will receive the test sheets and an answer sheet. Please make sure to transfer all your answers onto the answer sheet, because only answers marked on that sheet will be graded. Participants cheating, using unauthorized resources or making these available to others will be excluded from the exam. In the event that an exam participant should be excluded from the exam for one of these reasons, as a rule, the earliest date upon which the exam may be repeated shall fall three months after the date of exclusion from the exam.
- Please use a fountain pen to write on the answer sheet. Please do not use a pencil on the answer sheet.
- There are no restrictions regarding the number of repetitions of Goethe exams (The Goethe-Certificates A1, A2 und C1 can only be repeated in their entirety; The Goethe-Certificates B1, B2 and C2 can be taken/repeated as a whole or in modules).
- On the website of Goethe-Institute <https://www.goethe.de/en/spr/kup/prf/prf/gb1/ueb.html> you can find

Important information

1. About one week prior to the exam participants will receive an electronic exam confirmation in your email that contains specific details regarding time and place of the exam. Please print this confirmation and bring it on exam day along with your passport or ID-card. (original documents only)
2. Only students currently enrolled in one of the language classes at the Goethe language learning center enjoy the preferential "internal price" for Goethe-exams in Shanghai. Public classes must include a minimum of 80 units, private classes at least 20 units. All prepaid exam charges will be fully reimbursed at a handling fee of 200 RMB if participants withdraw 10 work days before the exam or earlier. Invoices already issued must be returned in this case. Participants withdrawing less than 10 work days before the exam will not be reimbursed. 10 work days before the exam or earlier, participants can also shift their original exam appointment to the following exam period at Goethe-Jinchuang (usually two months later). If participants decide to shift their exam to a later time, subsequent cancellations or further time suspensions will not be granted.
3. Results and grades of „Start Deutsch 1“ exam can be usually obtained on the afternoon of the working day following the exam date. Results and grades of „Goethe-Zertifikat A2“ exam can be usually obtained in 5 working days following the exam date. B1, B2 and C1 exams take a processing time of about 15 work days before results and grades will be released anonymously on the website of the SLZ where participants identify their data through their examinee's number <http://shanghai.goetheslz.com/en/exam-results>. The essays of the „writing module“ of the Goethe Certificate C2 are sent to the Goethe-Institute in Munich for evaluation. The result is returned to us about 1 month later. If other modules in addition to the "writing module" were taken on the exam day, the results will be jointly announced after about 1 month.
4. Goethe-Certificates will be issued within 3 work days after the disclosure of the results. Certificates can be personally obtained during office hours in Julu Lu 628, providing adequate identification, such as passport or ID. Third parties collecting certificates on behalf of the examinee need to produce a copy of that person's passport or ID in order to receive the certificate. Adequate identification such as a passport or ID-Card of the third parties needs to be provided as well.
5. Through a courier service, certificates can also be delivered to examinees' homes at the recipients' expenses. The appropriate forms will be provided on exam day or at the Goethe-Jinchuang SLZ reception desk in Julu Lu 628. A1 and A2 certificates will be mailed two weeks after the exam. B1, B2 and C1 certificates will be sent off four weeks after the exam.
6. Appeals against the results of the exam or against the administration of the exam are regulated by paragraphs 19, 21 and 22 of the exam guidelines of the Goethe-Institute. Further questions regarding appeals can be directly addressed to Goethe-Jinchuang via email or phone: goethezertifikat.sh@goetheslz.com Tel.: 021- 62897762
7. Without a printout of the electronic exam confirmation and an original ID-Card or passport, participants can not take part in the examination. Aides such as dictionaries, pieces of paper or notepapers containing handwritten notes etc. can not be taken along into the examination room. This also excludes technical tools such as mobile phones, smart watches, smart glasses, electronic pens or comparable items. Disregarding those regulations could be punished with exclusions to all certification examinations of three months up to one year. This can be extended to all Goethe-Institutes as well as cooperation partners worldwide.

Please, fill out the exam registration form correctly and deliver a copy of your valid passport or ID card as well as two color passport photos of a high quality. If examination fees have been wired to our bank account, please, bring a copy of the transfer voucher as well. These documents need to be submitted to our registration desk in person or by post ahead of the time for applications.
